- each round and its individual matches as per rolling 19-round perpetual program, which pre-determines each season's Grade competition's 15 rounds, and allocates each remaining round for use instead during any separate Grade Twenty20 competition
- each club hosts one or two matches, and one PGs-Grade double-header
- competition contributes to neither First Grade competition, nor Grade Club Championship
- travel between matches on 27 Oct, for those Blacktown players also in club's PGs team
- travel between matches on 3 Nov, for Illawarra and Newcastle teams
- player selection for two Twenty20 Superleague teams, based on performances during competition
- each BBL franchise then has until 6 Dec to finalise its BBL competition squad, and until 10 Dec to finalise its supplementary player list (for use in case of injury, and/or Champions League T20 participation)
