

Ghosts Women's 1st Grade

SCA 1st Grade Premiers and Minor Premiers

The Campbelltown Camden District Cricket Club First Grade Women's Team have won this year's Cricket NSW Premier Women's Premiership. It has been 31 years since the Ghosts have won the star studded Sydney competition, considered the best club competition for women in world cricket.

The weekend's rain forced the abandonment of the Grand Final and the Ghosts consistent form, resulting in the Minor Premiership, paid dividends.

Captain Hannah Trethewy was delighted to accept the trophy and express her gratitude to the team in post-match interviews. She heaped praise on the support she had from the senior players whilst her excitement to lead such a young team to victory was evident. Hannah commended the efforts of the coaching staff and recognised the tremendous support the team had received from the Club's Management Committee and sponsors.

The youthful look of the Ghosts side did not go unnoticed by Sydney Cricket Association delegates who when presenting the trophy alluded to the future being very bright for the Macarthur locals.

The side had performed consistently all season losing only one game with the majority of the player's juggling busy representative commitments on a weekly basis. Throughout the summer five players were selected in Women's National Cricket League State squads, six players were involved in WBBL franchises and five of the younger players represented NSW in age group National Championships. Lauren Cheatle, Belinda Vakarewa and Hannah Darlington also represented Australia.

Coach James Broadbent was amazed at the talent the squad contained. "All of them have played serious representative cricket," he commented, "They are disciplined, they train well and manage their loads and routines responsibly. These girls are outstanding role models for any young female athlete". Broadbent went on to praise the depth in the club when these girls are on representative duty.

Highlights of the season were plenty. Claire Koski's (Pictured) phenomenal batting averaging 121 runs, record breaking partnerships and bowlers all having great success throughout games enabled the outstanding leadership skills of Captain Hannah Trethewy to shine. Five bowlers finished in the competitions top fifteen (on statistics) whilst three bats featured in the competitions top 11.

The Ghosts ladies can now enjoy defending the trophy next season. Given their youth and development, opposing sides will want to avoid them next season. An exciting future lies ahead for this team. Containing an excellent blend of tremendous ability, experience and youth, the potential to dominate the immediate seasons ahead is a reality.
